SHOWING MEMORIES

Return With Us to Yesteryear

Like the glow of a campfire of the Old West GLOWING MEMORIES will help you look back on 1982 with warmth for the time and events that took place. Lean back in your saddle and dream of the time when cowboys were kings and buffalo and cattle roamed across the land. Just as those memories bring a smile to our lips and warmth to our hearts, we hope our look back at 1982 will produce many, many GLOWING MEMORIES of your own.

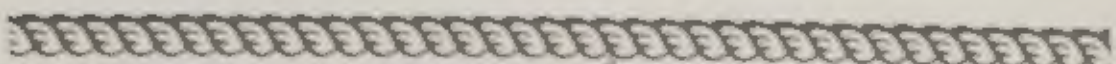

With summer still in our heads, we returned to LVA in the fall of 1981 to find 2 new computers, an electronic typewriter, and a water cooler. We also welcomed a new superintendent, Mr. Fran Morrow.

Activities were soon in full swing. Football practice was under way, All-State rehearsals had begun, and the All-School Play had been cast. The Kick-Off Dance provided the first social event of the year. Out-of-the-ordinary PE classes had students canoeing on the lake, playing miniature golf, learning to polka, aerobic dancing, and even a winter survival hike.

Tony Duncan and others found casts and crutches to their liking, and students tested the seat belt convincer.

Elsewhere, 1982 was the year of the space shuttle, the assassination of Anwar Sadat, and political unrest in Poland and El Salvadore. The preppy look was in, and knickers and boots became high fashion. Stripes and On Golden Pond won our hearts at the movies, the Dodgers won the World Series, and Iowa's Hawkeyes went to the Rose Bowl.

Junior High IDE

First hand experience is the only way to learn of a nomad. In the past, we have been able to manage to relocate ourselves before finally finding a permanent home.

Our curriculum is based on the 3 R's, and learning to be a man being. We also sought opportunities to communicate with the world (a letter campaign to Mr. [unclear] answered), and the President.

We traveled to Des Moines to catch a glimpse of the President, others failed to do. We spent an entire day visiting the Historical Building and the Art & Botanical Garden.

Spring brings the end of the year for our class. We participated in the Special Olympics and the [unclear] at Mill Lake.

in a good old way.

Been in school
since we were five.
Didn't know if we would survive.

You can see
we all came through in the process our education.

Time is passing
and it's quick.
Let us prepare for our future days.

Sometimes we look to the future with fear.
Then we look back on our high school years.

All of the fun and the moments we had.
Some that were happy
and others were sad.

These are the years that we'll never forget.
Help us along in the very near future.

And as our high schooling
comes to an end,
we'll promise letters
to all of our friends.

These next few years
will go by fast.
And the future we will soon be the past.

Just these few more moments of our time before we graduate of '87.

Council Buys Water Cooler

The 81-82 Student Council was elected the first day of school, and eagerly approached the responsibilities facing the group.

Randy Schmidt was elected to serve as President, and Brenda Sigmon served as Vice-President.

The group's activities included sponsoring Homecoming, the Snowball Dance, providing movies the day before Christmas break, and game ball raffles. The group decided to purchase a water cooler from the profits.

Band Marches in Rain and Cold

The LVA marching band performed at the Carroll County Fair and the Carroll County Band Festival. The band, under the direction of Mr. [Name], was the featured attraction at both events. The band members, dressed in their uniforms, marched in a precise formation, playing a variety of songs. The performance was well-received by the audience, and the band was praised for their skill and dedication.

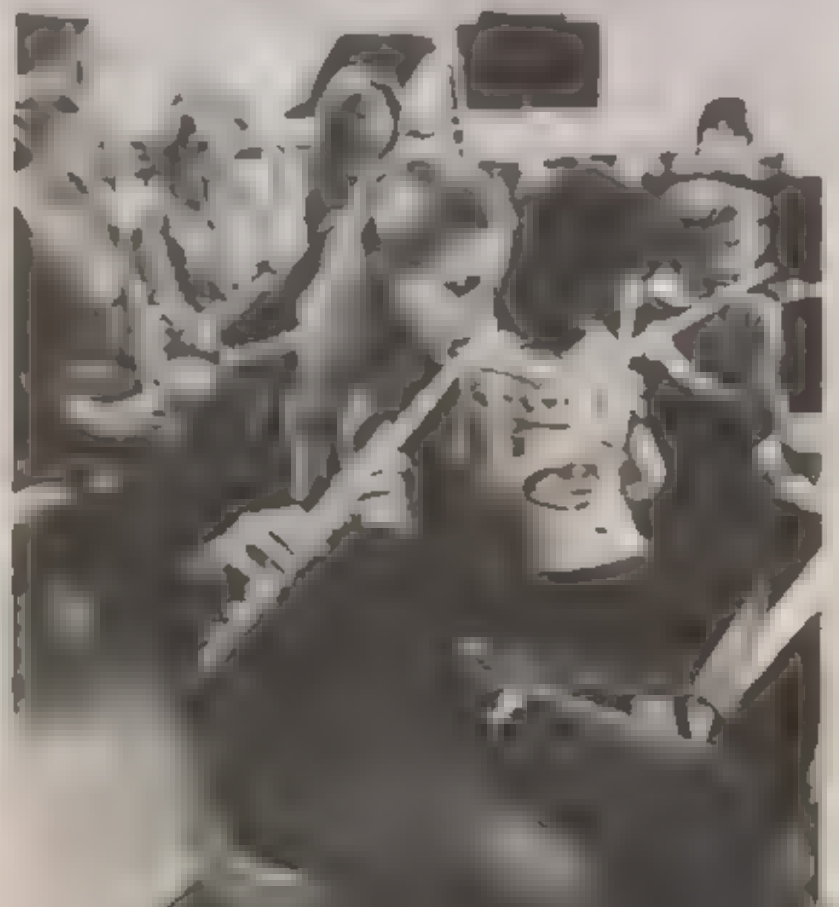

Kelli Mever, LVA's Band Queen, was chosen as the queen of Carroll's Mid Day Parade. She will reign over the year's parade.

The Play Was a "Kill"

When the play was over, I went to the stage and found that the audience had been very kind to the players. The play was a success and the audience was very kind to the players. The play was a success and the audience was very kind to the players.

I will tell you that the play was a success and the audience was very kind to the players. The play was a success and the audience was very kind to the players.

This is a very good play and the audience was very kind to the players. The play was a success and the audience was very kind to the players.

Playin' the Prairie

The spirit of the play was to show the students and faculty a glimpse of the life of the pioneer. The play was a success in every way. The students and faculty were very interested in the play and the life of the pioneer.

The play was a success in every way. The students and faculty were very interested in the play and the life of the pioneer.

Whoop It Up for a Victory

For the cheerleaders to lead the crowd in a victory song is a task of great responsibility. They express the spirit of the school in every cheer, song, and dance. They are the heart and soul of the school.

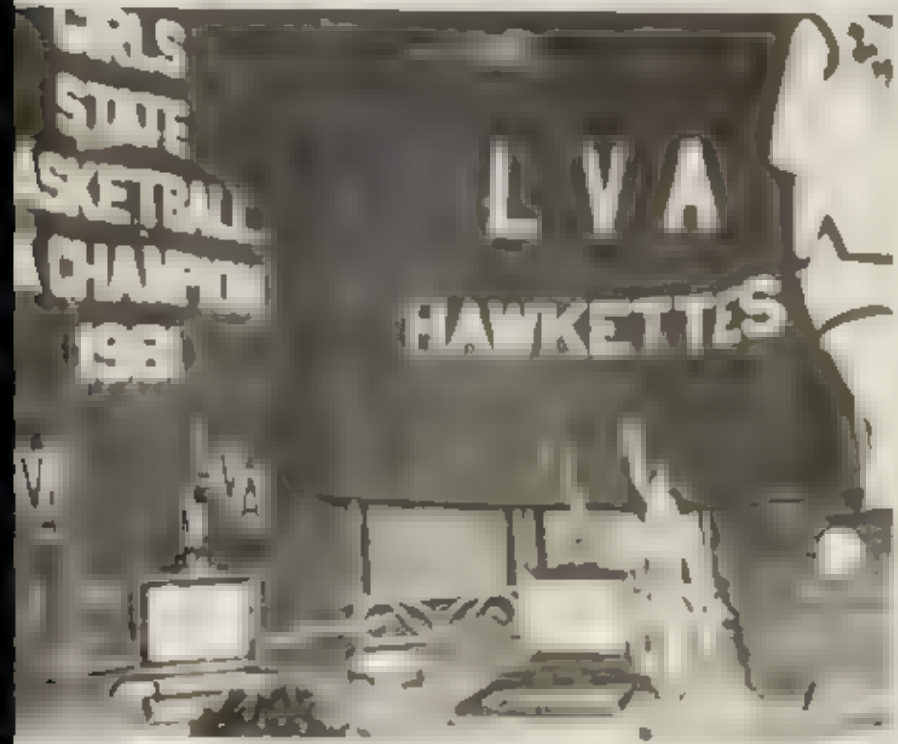

At the Athletic Banquet, the cheerleaders performed a variety of dances, including the "Whoop It Up" dance, the "Victory" dance, and the "School Spirit" dance.

We Caught Tournament Fever

Teachers Hold The Reins

The LVA faculty found the trail smooth during 1952-53. The computer age was more evident that year as a new course in programming was offered. The LVA faculty offered a variety of courses to graduating seniors, and a variety of courses for students as their primary fundraiser.

As We Ride into the Sunset

The school year is at its height. The sun is low in the sky as we near the end of the year. The water has been high and the roads are stringing a few people here and there. Some of the students enjoyed several days of vacation, but they had been added on to the end of the school year.

Lessons and other added variety to the school day. Many topics were demonstrated, explained, and argued in speech class. Some of the students were introduced to friends from other countries, and HAP students got acquainted with a girl and a boy on a first-hand basis.

The girls at the club in the morning for the first state agony of the day, and the girls of the state
of the day.

The girls of the state of spring at the first of the day. The girls of the state of the day
of the day.

For the first of the day, the girls of the state of the day. The girls of the state of the day
of the day. We hope you have enjoyed the first of the day
of the day. We hope you have enjoyed the first of the day
of the day.

Those Glowing Memories

The first of the summer holidays is the best.
The first of the summer holidays is the best.
The first of the summer holidays is the best.

The first of the summer holidays is the best.
The first of the summer holidays is the best.
The first of the summer holidays is the best.

The first of the summer holidays is the best.
The first of the summer holidays is the best.
The first of the summer holidays is the best.

THE END
